Core Values

The Evangelical Review of Society and Politics subscribes to the historic decisions of the early church councils. We hold dearly to the deity of Christ, the virgin conception, salvation through Jesus Christ, and the Trinity. We also believe in the unity of Scripture and consider the Bible as the final authority on all issues of faith and practice. This high view of Scripture demands that submissions are underpinned by a thoughtful biblical and theological analysis.

The Editors also welcome non-Evangelical contributors to submit biblically consistent critiques of Evangelical political and social thought, providing they are suitably respectful of our values and beliefs, and that submissions are of interest and relevant to the aims and readership of the journal. Articles appearing in the journal do not necessarily reflect the views of the Editors.

The Evangelical Review of Society and Politics is an international peer-reviewed journal exploring social and political issues from an interdisciplinary Evangelical perspective. The purpose of the journal is to bring an international and scholarly Evangelical analysis to bear upon various social and political issues of national and international interest. The Editors are committed to presenting the full spectrum of Evangelical thought to provide readers (whether Evangelical or those analysing Evangelical phenomena) with thoughtful, scholarly debate and original research that is biblically based and theologically sound. Scholarly submissions that are suitably respectful of the Evangelical tradition are invited from across the disciplinary spectrum.
